- 2.6 The Board shall appoint the Chair of the Committee who shall be an independent Non-Executive Director and should ordinarily have served on the Committee or another listed company Remuneration Committee, for a period of at least 12 months prior to their appointment. 6. Notice of meetings

6.1 Meetings of the Committee shall be called by the Chair or by the Company Secretary at the request of the Chair of the Committee or any of its members.

6.2 Unless otherwise agreed, notice of each meeting confirming the venue, time and date together with an agenda of items to be discussed, shall be forwarded to each member of the Committee and any other person required to attend in advance of the meeting. The Company Secretary shall ensure that the Committee receives information and papers in a timely manner to enable full and proper consideration of the issues.

7. Minutes of meetings

7.1 The Company Secretary shall minute the proceedings and resolutions of all Committee meetings, including the names of those present and in attendance.

7.2 Draft minutes of Committee meetings shall be circulated promptly to all members of the Committee. Once approved, minutes should be circulated to all other members of the Board, unless the Chair of the Committee considers it would be inappropriate to do so.

8. Annual General Meeting

8.1 The Chair of the Committee should attend the Annual General Meeting to answer any shareholder questions on the Committee's activities and to seek engagement with shareholders on significant matters related to the Committee's areas of responsibility.

9. Duties

9.1 The Committee should carry out the duties below for the parent Company, major subsidiary undertakings and the Group as a whole, as appropriate.

9.2 In carrying out any of its duties under the remaining provisions of this paragraph, the Committee shall take into account all factors that it considers appropriate including, but not limited to:

9.2.1 the views of shareholders and other stakeholders where, in the opinion of the Committee, it is appropriate to do so;

9.2.2 whether individuals are rewarded in a fair and responsible manner and are provided with appropriate incentives to attract, retain and motivate individuals of the quality required to run the Company successfully, encourage enhanced performance and reward them for their individual contributions, without paying more than is necessary;

9.2.3 the need for simplicity, clarity, proportionality, predictability in setting the remuneration policy and remuneration arrangements (including the metrics and targets of performance-related aspects of remuneration);

9.2.4 the need for remuneration arrangements to ensure reputational and other risks from excessive rewards, and behavioural risks that can arise from target-based incentive plans, are identified and mitigated;

9.2.5 the need to promote the long-term sustainable success of the Company, and the link between remuneration policy (and the potential remuneration outcomes under it) and the delivery of the Company's strategy and the long-term performance of the Company;

9.2.6 the alignment of the remuneration policy with the Company's purpose values and culture; and

9.2.7 the need to promote long-term shareholdings by Executive Directors to support alignment with long-term shareholder interests.

9.3 The Committee shall:

- 9.3.1 determine and agree with the Board the framework or broad policy for Directors' remuneration, set remuneration for the Chairperson of the Board, Chief Executive and the Executive Directors, and monitor the level and structure of remuneration for other members of senior management. For the avoidance of doubt, the remuneration of Non-Executive Directors shall be a matter for the Chairperson of the Board and the Executive Directors of the Board. No Director or senior manager shall be involved in any decisions as to their own remuneration outcome.
- 9.3.2 when setting remuneration policy for Executive Directors, review and have regard to workforce remuneration and related policies across the Company.
- 9.3.3 review the ongoing appropriateness and relevance of the remuneration policy.
- 9.3.4 within the terms of the agreed policy (where relevant), determine the total individual remuneration package of the Chairperson of the Board and each Executive Director including, in respect of the latter, bonuses, pension arrangements, incentive payments and share options or other share awards.
- 9.3.5 to keep abreast of external remuneration trends and market conditions by obtaining reliable, up-to-date information about remuneration in other companies. To help it fulfil its obligations, the Committee shall have full authority to appoint remuneration consultants and to commission or purchase any reports, surveys or information which it deems necessary, within any budgetary restraints imposed by the Board.
- 9.3.6 be exclusively responsible for establishing the selection criteria, selecting and appointing any remuneration consultants who advise the Committee.
- 9.3.7 approve the design of any performance related pay schemes operated by the Company and approve the total annual payments made under such schemes.
- 9.3.8 ensure that all performance-related pay schemes and (where applicable) share incentive plans contain appropriate safeguards that enable the use of discretion to override formulaic outcomes and to recover and/or withhold sums or share awards under appropriate specified circumstances.
- 9.3.9 to develop a formal policy for post-employment shareholding requirements.
- 9.3.10 exercise independent judgement and, where appropriate, ensure the Committee retains discretion to scale and claw back remuneration outcomes, taking account of Company and individual performance, and wider circumstances.
- 9.3.11 review the design of all share incentive plans ensuring these are put for approval to the Board and (where required) shareholders at the next Annual General Meeting. For any such plans, the Committee shall determine each year whether awards will be made, and if so, approve the overall amount of such awards, the individual awards to Executive Directors, Company Secretary and designated senior managers and the performance targets to be used.
- 9.3.12 determine the policy for, and scope of, pension arrangements for each Executive Director, noting that only basic salary should be pensionable.
- 9.3.13 ensure that contractual terms on termination, and any payments made, are fair to the individual, and the Company, that failure is not rewarded and that the duty to mitigate loss is fully recognised.
- 9.3.14 oversee any major changes in employee benefits structures throughout the Company or Group.
- 9.3.15 agree the policy for authorising claims for expenses from the directors.

10. Reporting responsibilities

- 10.1 The Chair of the Committee shall report to the Board on its proceedings after each meeting on all matters within its duties and responsibilities.
- 10.2 The Committee shall make whatever recommendations to the Board it deems appropriate on any area within its remit where action or improvement is needed, and adequate time should be available for Board discussion where necessary.

- 10.3 The Committee shall produce a report describing the Committee's activities and detailing the remuneration of Directors to be included in the Company's annual report and ensure each year that it is put to shareholders for approval at the Annual General Meeting. The report should explain the strategic rationale of the remuneration policies, their structure and any performance metrics, and reflect the requirements outlined in 9.2 above. If the policy has not operated as intended, there must be a description of what is being done to address this. In addition, the Committee should describe any engagement with shareholders, with the workforce and the exercise of its discretion around remuneration outcomes.
- 10.4 The Committee shall also ensure that the provisions regarding disclosure of information as set out in The Companies (Directors' Remuneration Policy and Directors' Remuneration Report) Regulations 2019 and the Code are fulfilled, to include a report of the Company's remuneration policy in the Company's annual report and will present the policy at the Annual General Meeting for shareholder approval at least every three years or whenever a significant change to the policy is proposed.
